How to Find, Edit and Delete Your Draft Progress Notes

Once you find your Draft notes, you have the option of deleting or completing the note. First, you must find your note and open it up. If you need to delete your draft note, see the next section in this document.

To Find Your Draft Notes

Look in Your My To Do’s

The easiest way to complete a draft note is to open it up from your My To Do’s Widget. If the note is there, simply click on the name of the form. The form will open up and you can complete it. However, you may have accidentally deleted this reminder from your My To Do’s. If you have done this, follow the procedure below to find your drafts and complete them.

My Pending Note Widget

On your Home Console you will see a widget titled, “My Pending Notes – 60 Days.” This Widget has all of your notes that are still in draft form, from the past 60 days only. If you have pending notes that are more than 60 days overdue, they will not appear in this widget and you will have to look in the chart.

You cannot open notes from this Widget. You will have to open these notes in the chart to complete them.

4) You will see an array of buttons that can be used to sort and filter notes.

Then, in the upper right corner of each note, in the yellow bar, click “Edit.” This will launch your draft note for completion.

Group Scratch Notes: You will not be able to complete your individual scratch group notes in the manner described above. Your first step is to look in your My To Do’s for any scratch notes that need completing. Next, check your charts for any notes that are not showing in your My To Do’s. This will only have happened if your link to the note from your My To Do’s was accidentally deleted before you completed the note. If you identify any scratch notes that are not in your My To Do’s, you will need to send a message to askqi@santacruzounty.us so that the note can be deleted. You will then need to rewrite the note.

Use the same procedure described above to locate your incomplete Draft Group Progress Notes in the charts.
