

2009 Changes in Reportable Diseases

Changes to the list in Section 2500

(Reporting from providers to Local Health Jurisdictions -LHJs):

- Anaplasmosis was added to “Ehrlichiosis” as "Anaplasmosis/Ehrlichiosis".
- “Poliomyelitis” was changed to Poliovirus Infection.
- “Chlamydia Infections, including Lymphogranulom Venereum (LGV)” changed to Chlamydia trachomatis infections including Lymphogranuloma Venereum (LGV).
- Urgency of reporting requirement for severe Staphylococcus aureus infection changed from “Report immediately by telephone” to Report within one working day of identification.
- “Conjunctivitis, Acute Infections of the Newborn, Specify Etiology” was deleted.
- “Toxoplasmosis” was deleted.
- “Diarrhea of the Newborn, Outbreaks” was deleted.

Changes to the list in Section 2505

(Reporting from laboratories to LHJs):

- Poliovirus was added.
- Coccidioidomycosis was added.
- Anaplasmosis/Ehrlichiosis was added.
- “Chlamydial Infections, including Lymphogranuloma Venereum” changed to Chlamydia trachomatis infections including Lymphogranuloma Venereum.
- Existing reporting mechanism changed by requiring electronic reporting to the state electronic reporting system within one year of establishment of the state electronic reporting system.